Dick Osborne
World Cup Coffee

Dick was raised in Oregon and graduated from Willamina High School. Dick spent 38 years working for a canteen company on the vending side. Dick has been happily married to his wife Sandy for 45 years. They have five kids and seven grandkids. Dick has many hobbies including classic cars. He owns an '88 Corvette that he enjoys taking to car shows.

Dick shared an exceptional Columbian coffee with everyone by the name of "Mesa de los Santos". This is a "fair trade" coffee which means that it is produced by workers earning more than the minimum wage and with fair labor practices. You pay a little more for this coffee to ensure that the community that produces and harvests the beans also benefits from the profits.

World Cup Coffee also sells many organic and specialty coffees. Call Dick today to set up coffee and/or water service at your business!
