Lili Pang, Pang Hansen Creative, is a new member in the graphic design category. Pang Hansen specializes in giving businesses credibility through emotional and visual design.

Hal Hallmark, STUFF specializes in previously owned items. These include electronics, computers, musical instruments, jewelry and more. Finding enough items to sell is always a challenge, so anyone with a business, home or storage unit in need of emptying—please contact STUFF.

STUFF carries a large variety of electronic items. Hal has a lot of knowledge about stereo equipment, photographic equipment and other items. He shared his knowledge of pixels, mega-pixels, amps and watts. None of which focus on the "more is always better" theory.

Good referrals for Hal Hallmark, STUFF: businesses that are moving, downsizing, updating equipment, ending product lines, etc. Individuals looking to empty out houses, storage units and attics of high quality items.
